

A close-up photograph of a pig's head, partially obscured by a dense field of wildflowers. The pig has a white face with dark spots and a reddish-brown ear. The background is a soft-focus field of yellow and white wildflowers under a cloudy sky. A semi-transparent grey rectangle is overlaid on the top left, and a red rectangle is overlaid on the top center, both containing text. The main title is overlaid in the center in large white letters.

A photograph of two young calves in a dark, industrial setting, likely a slaughterhouse. The calves are standing in front of large, white, rectangular metal cages or pens. The calf in the foreground is looking directly at the camera, while the one in the background is looking away. The ground is dark and appears to be covered in dirt or manure. The overall tone is somber and highlights the conditions of animal confinement.
